NOTES OF THE TURF.

The most satisfactory reports of Requitel come from Red Bank. The crack son of Eothen is doing everything Jimmy Rowe asks him, and if nothing happens in the meantime he will be seen at the post for the Metropolitan. Henry Griffin, who arrived recently from California, is with the Brookdale string and will have the leg up on the top weight in his races.—New York Sun.

J. J. Thomas, Hamilton, Ont.—In the fourth race at New Orleans, March 23, Sly Fox and Percy F were coupled in the betting as the Reagan entry. Bets on one colt are good as to the other. No reputable bookmaker will question such fact.

Dave Gideon's colt, Eakin, who was thought to be able to win the Futurity of 1896 is training well this spring. He is by Iroquois—Carlotta C. cost Gideon $26,000 or so and is likely to be a real good racehorse, when he can stand racing action.

The Forsyth's first week's programme is out. The race offerings are five in number daily, with $300 and $400 purses, totalling from $1,500 to $1,700 daily. The daily purse programme of Forsyth is the best in the West so far issued.

That turf sewer, the Cincinnati Enquirer, was responsible for the report that Charles Hughes had backed First Mate for the Suburban. As usual, it discounts its report and quotes Mr. Hughes as its authority.

Jockey Van Kuren, whose chief fame is about his ride on Reyel Santa Anita when the colt won the American Derby of 1894, is to ride for Covington & Kent this season.

Ben Brown's fastest work to date is three-quarters in 1:18. He is being pointed for the Kentucky Derby, and is expected to perform well in that race.

J. B., Chicago, Ill.—J wins, unless there was a special reservation about both of B's horses—an entry—starting, made when the bet was made.

"Lucky" Baldwin's sterling colt Ramiro by Gano has dickey legs and has been fired. The colt will do little or no racing this season.

John Madden has turned out the 3-year-old colt Chelsea, by Longfellow—Cinderella. The colt's wind is seriously affected.

Windsoor is threatened by a Canadian law prohibiting race meetings for more than a term of ten days.

Divide and The Winner are both doing especially well in Eastern training.
